THE CLIMAX.

Wednesday, April 6, 1891.

Dr. Jennings continues ill at his home in this place.

Ten per cent dividend declared by the First National. See notice.

More snow fell here on Monday than any day during the winter.

A heavy snow fell here Monday evening, but melted away yesterday.

Residence for sale on Smith-Ballard street. Sealed of Mr. M. McCarty.

Saturday is Arbor Day, according to the Governor's proclamation. Plant trees.

The recent Grand Jury found several indictments for selling cigarettes to boys.

The north-bound passenger was over four hours late, Sunday. Wreck on Rockdale.

Don't forget that your Uncle Jim Dykes will be in the ring when the ice-creaming season comes.

The bad weather of the last week or two has nearly stopped the building operations about town.

Several wise ones spotted the robbers, as soon as they read of their capture, but they were mistaken.

See personal column for higher compliment ever paid to Madison County boy.

Ekin Bros., merchants at Waco, made an assignment, last week, to Mr. W. D. Bony. Liabilities only about $1,000.

Mr. Beauchamp, the great temperance speaker, will be here on Saturday, this month and will speak at the Court-house.

The people from nearly all parts of the country can see the stand-pipe of our waterworks, as it looms up above the trees.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Richmond Water and Light Company is called for April 15th, at the office in this place.

Madison County Democratic Convention, Saturday, May 2nd, to select delegates to the State Convention at Louisville, May 13th.

Miss Emma Burdin was gored by a cow and painfully injured Saturday afternoon, at the colored man Babu Manday, of Bates Creek. The Nicholashow Democrat says: "On last Sunday night, a number of negroes left Madison county and came over to Jessamine, crossing the river at Bates Creek Ferry, and proceeding to the home of a negro named Fred Hale, who lives near Spears. Arriving there they surrounded the house and Babu Manday, the leader, after ordering Hale to give himself up, had him to fire a number of shots into the house and through the windows.

Hale responded with several shots from within and the leader of the mob, Babu Manday, fell dead with a bullet in his breast, and several others were wounded. The other negroes then fled, leaving the dead body of their leader, Hale was not further molested, but concluded to leave the country, and before going told Abe Garrett that they double-teamed on him; but he got one of them and was going away. He left taking Anna Perkins with him. She is the woman in that caused the trouble. She had left Monday to live with Hale and Manday went with her for the purpose of lynching Hale and the woman.

Squire James Baxter held an inquest over the dead body of Manday and the following report was filed here Tuesday:

"We the jury believe the body before us to be that of Babu Manday; that he came to his death on the night of the 29th of March, and that his death was the result of a gun-shot wound, and he died in trying to escape from the vicious brutes."

We demand the abolition of National Banks and the substitution of legal tender Treasury notes, in lieu of National Bank notes, direct to the people, in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, regulating the amount needed on a per capita of not less than fifty dollars, and that this shall be the legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private. It shall be based upon a gold and silver basis, at a low rate of interest on good security.

We demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealing in futures of agricultural and mechanical productions.

We demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing at the same time it would result in the greatest good to the greatest number of people.

Here is a copy of a letter dictated by a 5-year-old Richmond girl visiting in Texas: "Dear Papa—I slept so much coming here that I am tired. Delta looked in a glass at St. Louis and cried—she thought it wasn't her. She had so much smoke on her face, and mama washed it off before she could eat breakfast. I tell you we are a long way from Fostown Tell Dr.—to send me a pair of new teeth, cause I pulled mine out and lost me ten hundred stories about making them before I left home. I want them by Sunday. Tell him I broke a joint off another tooth and he wouldn't put it back and I'm mad about that. You all won't know me when I come home. I'll look so much like Texas. Papa, I wish you could see these Indians—they look like sheep people. I saw some little ones no bigger than me, but they were not girls—they were young Indians. I am afraid we are getting homesick, for one day we didn't eat much. Don't fail to see about my teeth."

RELIGIOUS.

The new rector of the Episcopal church will preach on Sunday, 19th.

Rev. C. P. Williamson left for Baltimore, last Thursday, to be gone five or six days.

Rev. H. C. Morrison's meeting at the Methodist church in Hopkinsville, closed with one hundred additions.

Dr. R. M. Hatfield, president of the great Methodist school at Evanston, Ill., died suddenly there last week.

Rev. Mr. Lyons of Mt. Sterling, filled the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church in this city, last Sunday.

The Methodists of E. Hill neighborhood are raising money to help the church next to St. Nicholas Hotel.

Mr. Eliash G. Parrish has gone to Lexington where he will spend the spring and summer in the Kentucky Commercial College.

Mr. J. J. Carson, of Louisville, formerly a well-known merchant of this place, spent Sunday with his brother-in-law, Mr. J. B. Stoner.

Mr. Walker has returned from the winter's stay in Texas, looking healthy, with a buzzaw, and ready for a spring campaign in Kentucky.

Mrs. Bourne, widow of the Kingston neighbor, was thrown from his horse near the Three Forks depot, this place, one day last week, and was painfully hurt about the head. He is about 60 years old.

A great many people went down to the Main street and looked under the great arch, last Wednesday, but they didn't see any robbers, or goods, or any hole in the wall. Then they thought about its being April 1st, and sneaked off home.

Special Train.

Chancellor Blanton has chartered a special train of three coaches over the Kentucky Central to leave Richmond at 2 o'clock p.m. on Friday, April 10th, for the inter-collegiate oratorical contest at Lexington. Return will be made at 11 p.m., and reach Mitchell at 1 o'clock a.m., stopping only at Paris and Winchester. Round-trip ticket only $1.50.

The contest will take place in the open house, beginning at 8 o'clock, Mr. F. H. Keene, of Louisville, represents Central University, and is the fine speaker. A large number of friends will go over to the contest. This is an opportunity which the friends of the University should take advantage of.

Fine Work.

The County Union assembled at the Court-house in Richmond on Friday, April 3rd, and continued in session two days. Squire John Hill presided the first day, pro tem, President Hiram Jett having resigned. W. W. Combs was elected to succeed Mr. Jett, and presided the second day.

Twelve sub-unions, having a total enrollment of six hundred, were represented by 36 delegates. Great increase in new members was reported since last county meeting.

County Secretary J. T. Parrish having resigned, Mr. B. F. Golden was elected to that office.

Assistant State Lecturer J. G. Blair, of Carlisle, was present and made a speech. He advocated the sub-treasury for wheat and cotton with a fire-proof warehouse in every district, and a government advancement of 50 percent. He opposed National Banks, opposed lawyers in the Legislature, more reading among the Alliance members—wanted them to read more newspapers and keep better posted. Opposed class legislation and advised that the farmers look after the election of men to office who espouse their cause.

Dr. Clancy, a member of the Constitutional Convention, was present and made a speech. He advocated free exchange of silver, closer supervision of railroads, opposed a third party, and said the salvation of the country depended upon the Democratic party.

The adjourned Resolutions and Decisions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS.

In Judge Cleaum's court, yesterday, were called the cases of the two sons of Mr. Taylor Rice and a son of Mr. Anderson Cheatum, alias tutor Fullam, Van Lear, Robinson and Skiles, growing out of the disciplining of a dozen or more boys of the Preparatory Department of Central University, for playing "hookey," or "cutting" on April Fools' day. Judge Cleaum ruled that the cases of one of the complainants, declined to sit in the cases, and City Judge Rice was called in, but, having expressed an opinion, also declined to sit. Squire Armer was called, but having been sick several days, declined. Then Squire Willis was summoned and took charge of the cases. The case of one of the Rice boys was taken up. It will be continued this afternoon or to-morrow, as there are many witnesses. The tators are charged with assault and battery, and it is the province of Squire Willis to adjudge the case. I hold them for examination by the grand jury.

For Governor.

Hon. Curtis F. Borman, of Madison, has long been known as one of the most able and influential of Kentucky Republicans. He has several times represented his county in the Legislature and served as Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury. He is an able lawyer, and is the father of A. R. Berman, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Richmond district. Mr. Berman is one of the prospective Republican candidates for Governor.

Cincinnati Post.

Fool'd on the First.

He was a mechanic, and had a girl of whom he thought the world. He went to work on the morning of the 1st, but suddenly developed a severe case of headache and had to go see a doctor. She hadn't sent for him, but he went, and soon returned with all traces of the headache gone.

Cousins of Frank and Jesse James.

Mr. Frank James, wife and two sons, Frank, Jr. and Jesse, stopped with Mr. Maupin, in this place, last Wednesday night. Mr. James and family have been west several months and were on their way to Jackson county, their former home. He is an cousin to the original James brothers, and his two sons are named for them.

Took Late.

Just as the CLIMAX had gone to press, last week, the following note was handed in by a minister, but too late for publication:

"This is 'All-Fools' Day,' or as we say, 'April Fools' Day,' and it has been sore-organized for generations; but for very few people know that the authority for it is founded in the Bible. See Malachi, 4th chapter and 7th verse."

Mr. Pease.

We demand the abolition of National Banks and the substitution of legal tender Treasury notes, in lieu of National Bank notes, direct to the people, in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, regulating the amount needed on a per capita of not less than fifty dollars, and that this shall be the legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private. It shall be based upon a gold and silver basis, at a low rate of interest on good security.

We demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealings in futures of agricultural and mechanical productions.
